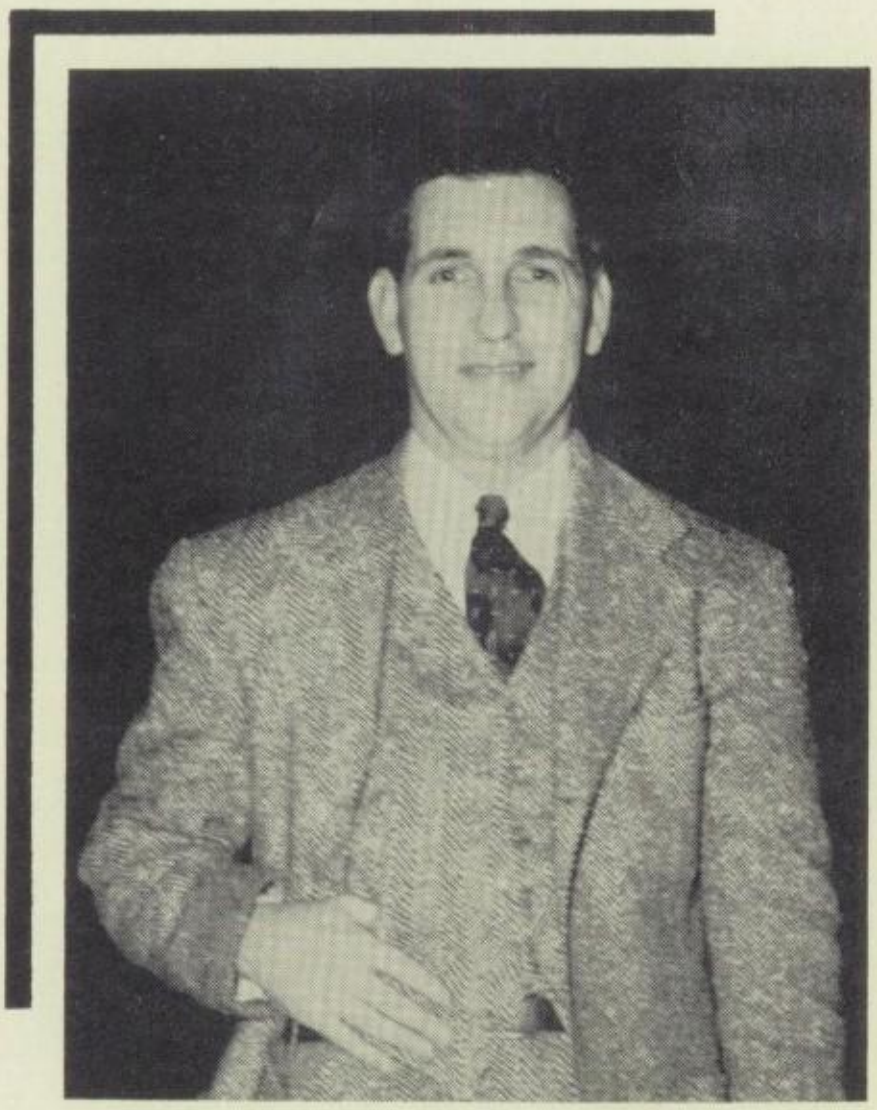
Dedication

This issue of the Rosa Mystica is dedicated, in deepest gratitude and respect, to the memory of him whose Christian manliness was an inspiration to all who were associated with him.



When Rosa Mystica 1950 went to press, all of us were shocked by the news of the sudden passing away of our Athletic Director, Mr. John Clark.

With hearts filled with sorrow, we call to mind St. Paul's words to St. Timothy—"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith." (2 Tim. 4:7)

"May his be an eternity of Blessedness and Peace"

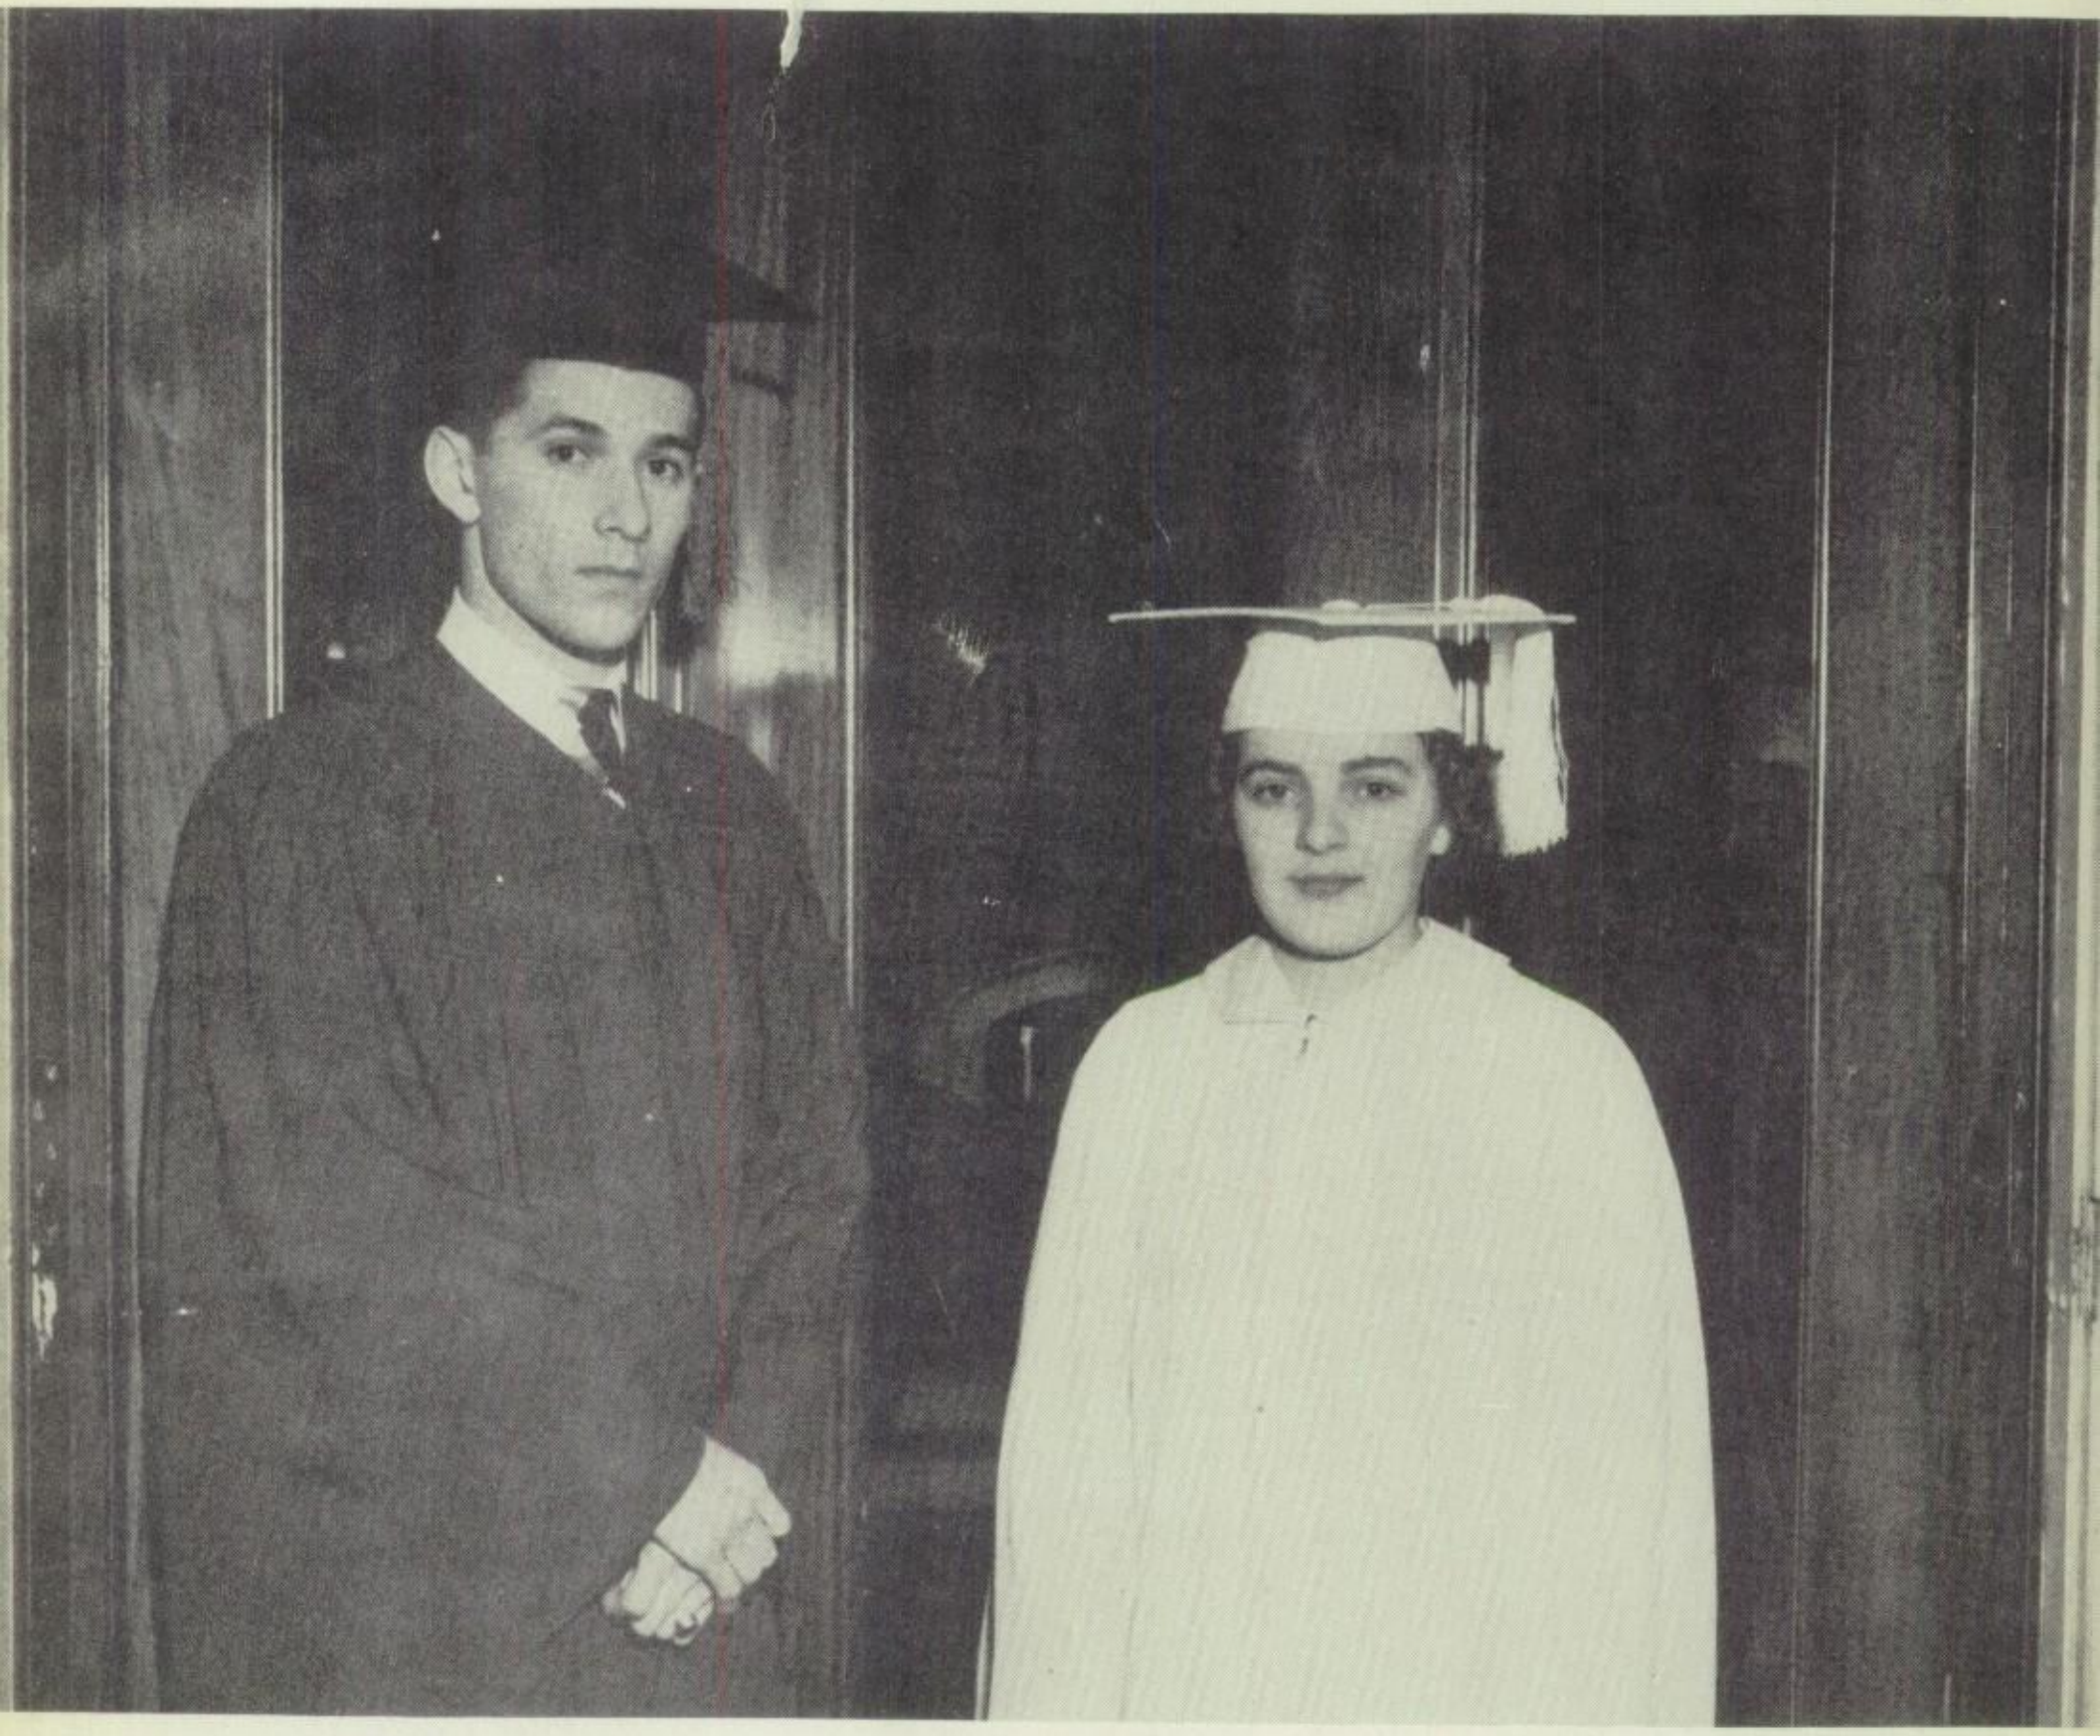
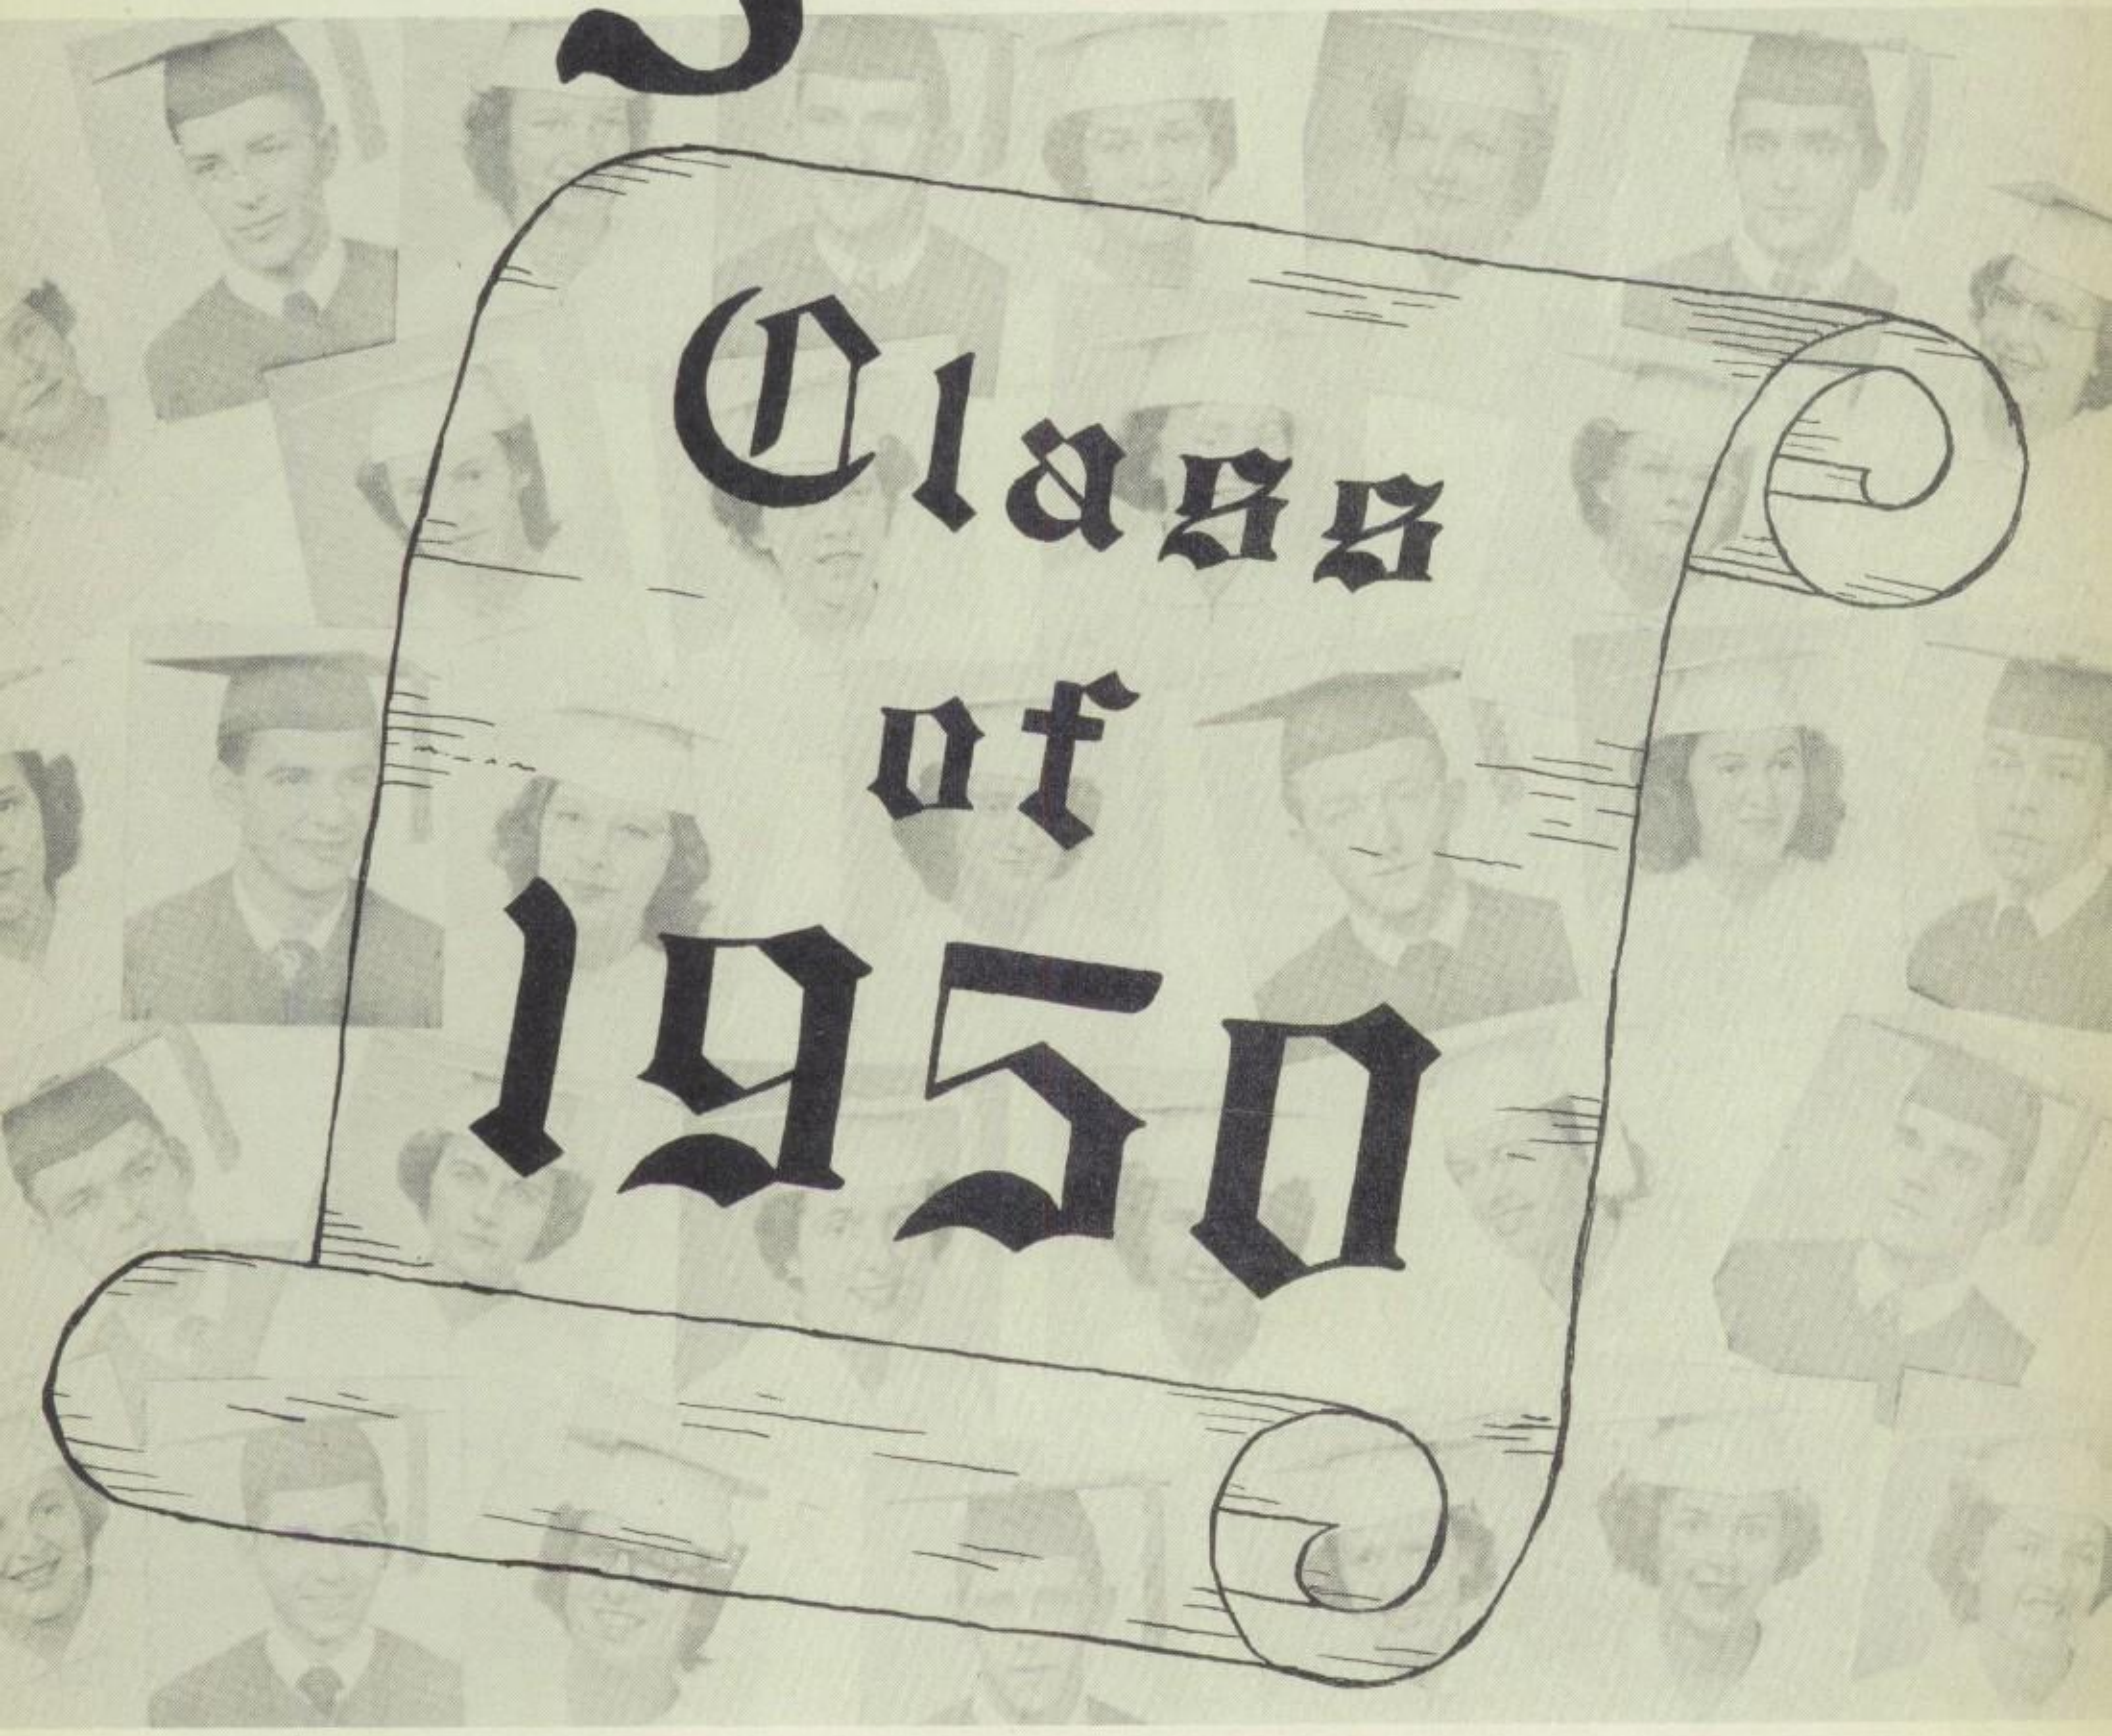
Rosa



"TODAY you will know that the Lord will come, and at dawn you shall see His glory." With these words, Our Holy Father initiated the inspiring ceremony of opening the Holy Year Door, thus opening the entrance to the greatest temple of Christendom. How fortunate are we, the graduates of the "Half Century Class," that the year which will launch us into adult life is a year brimful of priceless opportunities to arm ourselves with the unfathomable spiritual wealth of the Church's spiritual treasury.

Mystira



MAY the symbolic triple stroke of the hammer as it resounds on the Mystic Door of St. Peter's re-echo deep down in our souls, reminding us of our triple Catholic heritage—our home, our school and our Church. Having heeded the guiding and the warning strokes of this triple hammer, may there be opened to us one day the great Mystic Door, admitting us to that Blessed Vision of which the inspired writer says—"eye hath not seen, nor has ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, what things God hath prepared for them that love Him."

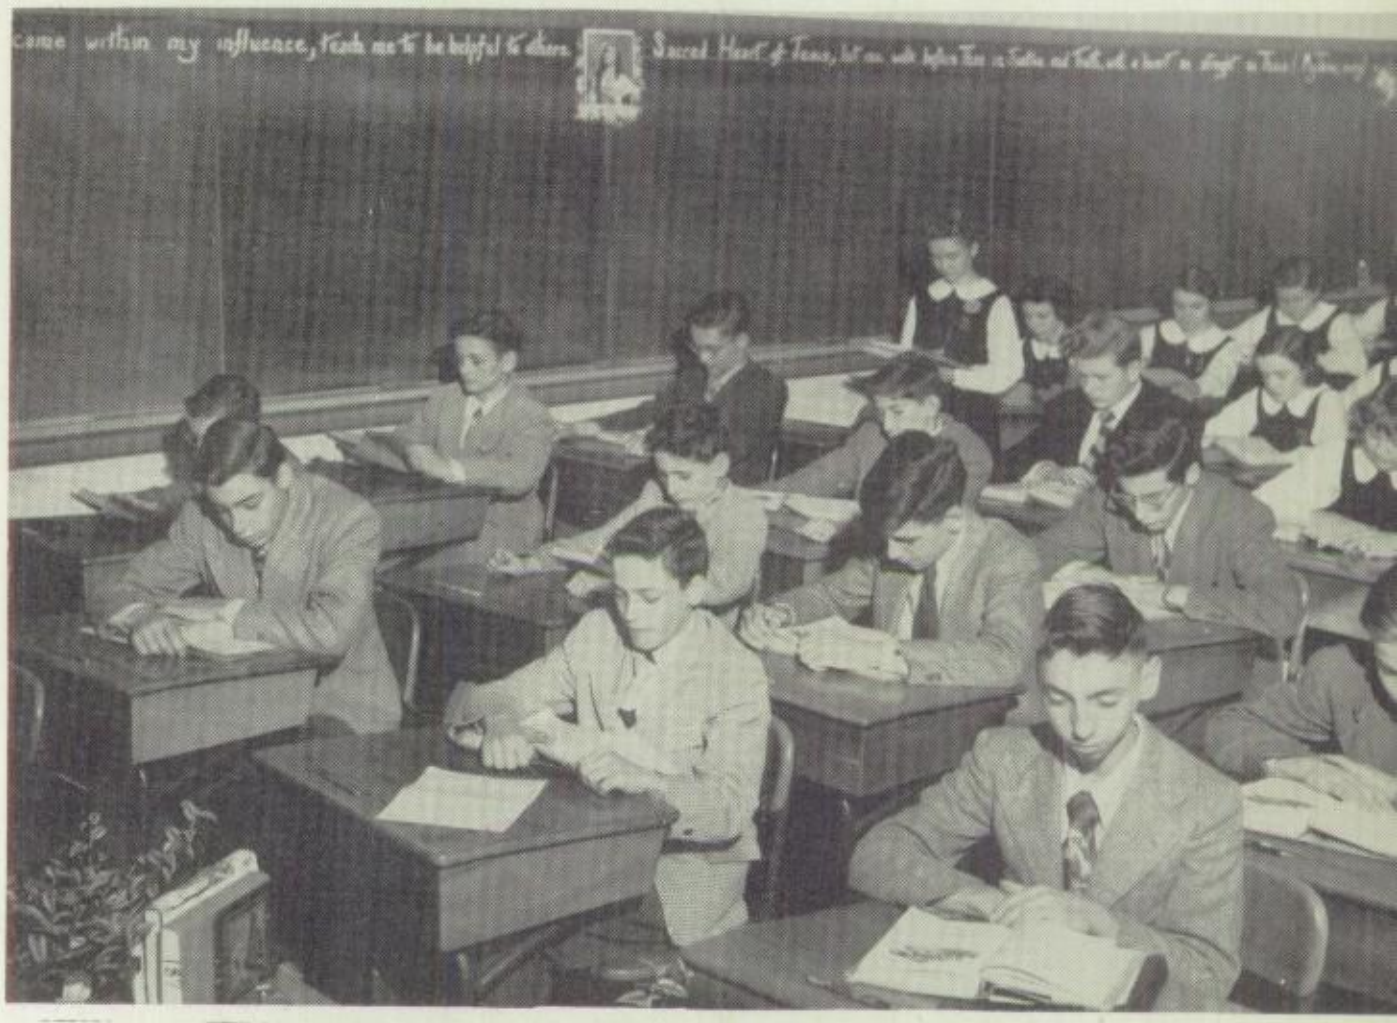
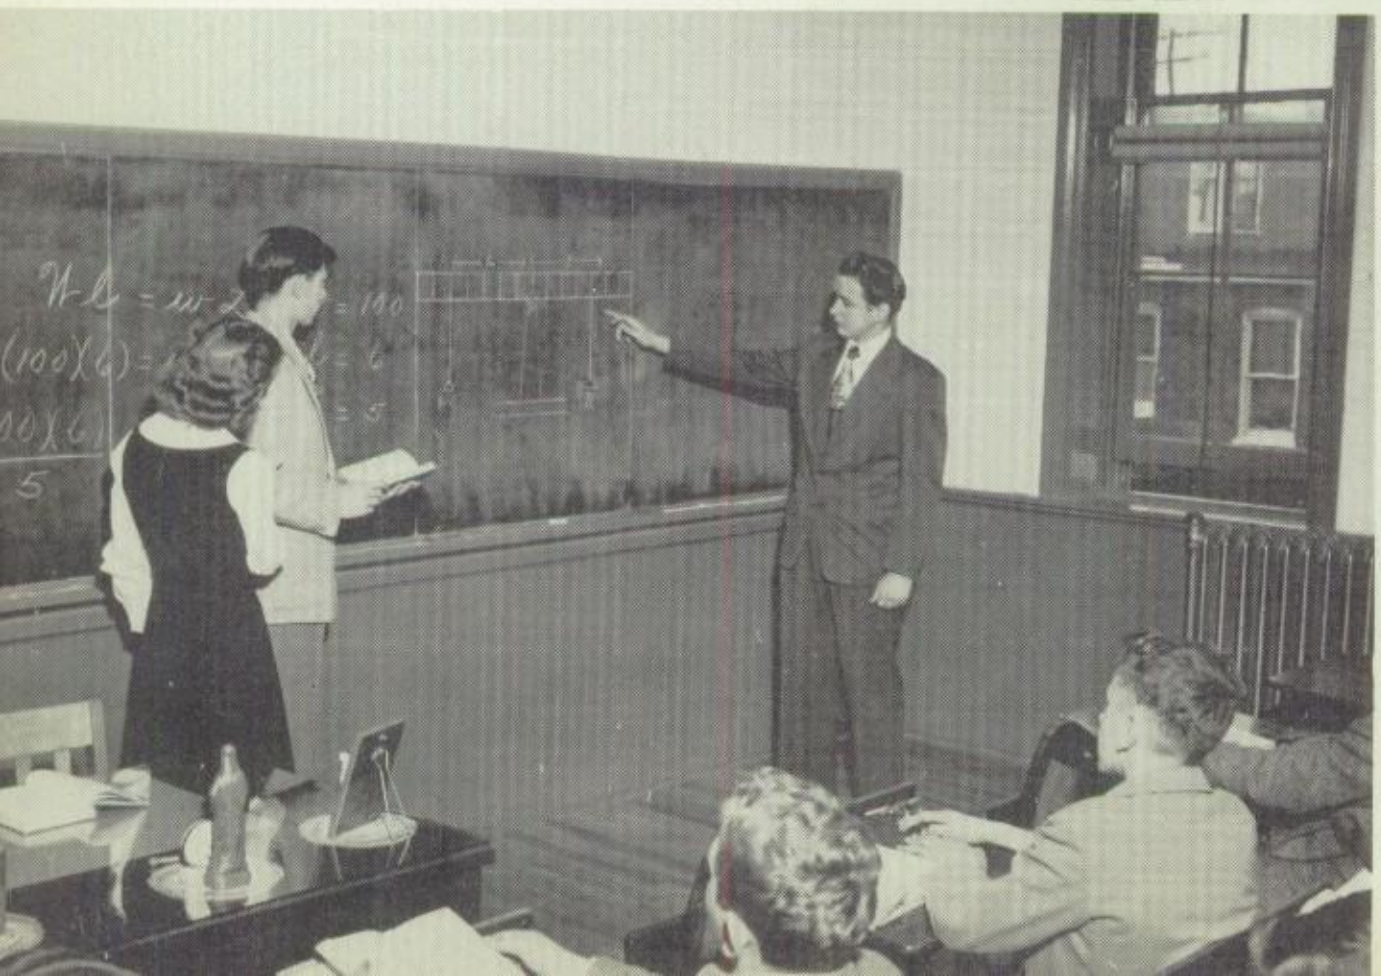
Richard Wagman demonstrates a math problem to Louis Salvatore while Joan Wise records the results.

Geometry students are always sure to be fascinated by the properties of parallel lines.



Patricia Howard translates as sophomore Latin students peruse "The Labors of Hercules."



Richard Mangold explains to Leona Haley and Joseph Fabie how a lever problem may be solved.

Patricia Eckenrode is convincing P. O. D. class that the basic ideas of right and wrong which the church teaches can be applied to every political, economic and social problem.

Library Aides, Marie Kerschner and Patricia Howard, discuss some new additions to the book shelves while Thomas Althoff stops for a second between classes to get "caught up" on latest Green and Gold news.

The bulletin board plays an important part in reminding students of the feasts of the month, as Nancy Shaffer indicates to the Senior religion class.

While Robert Gable speeds up the production of oxygen, John Dauber insures the continued release of hydrogen and Fred Kinley prepares to ignite a soap bubble containing a mixture of both gases.

While Joseph Heidler and Joseph Geubtner note the amnites reading and Donald Nagle checks the voltage across the circuit Charlotte Kauffman looks up the characteristics of a Parallet Circuit.

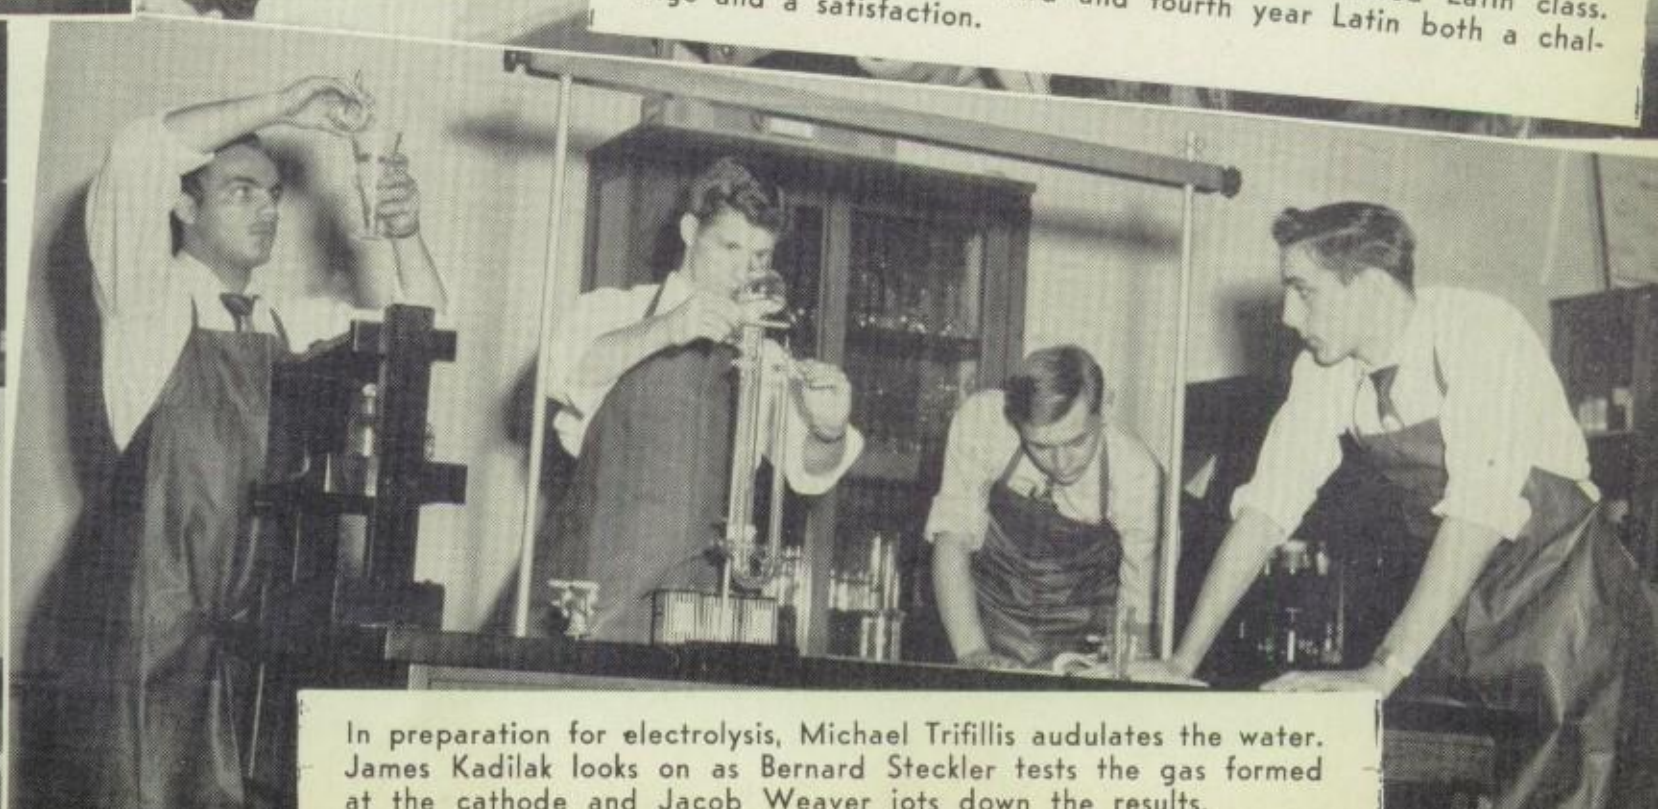
Sister Thecla, O.S.F., prepares to show a film as seniors eagerly look forward to enjoying it.

Adrienne Chambers points to the rule for placemen of modifiers as David Topper and Robert Koch pre pare to prove the rule by illustrated sentences.

The arrival of La Croisade, our French newspaper, always means an interesting French lesson, followed by a lively discussion. Sister Maria Leona, C.I.M., supervises a perusal of the news before questioning.

Ann Trulinos points to outline as Junior stenography students study the formations.

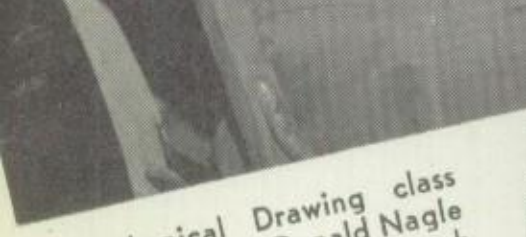
Sister Dolores inspects the progress of an advanced Latin class. Academic students find third and fourth year Latin both a challenge and a satisfaction.



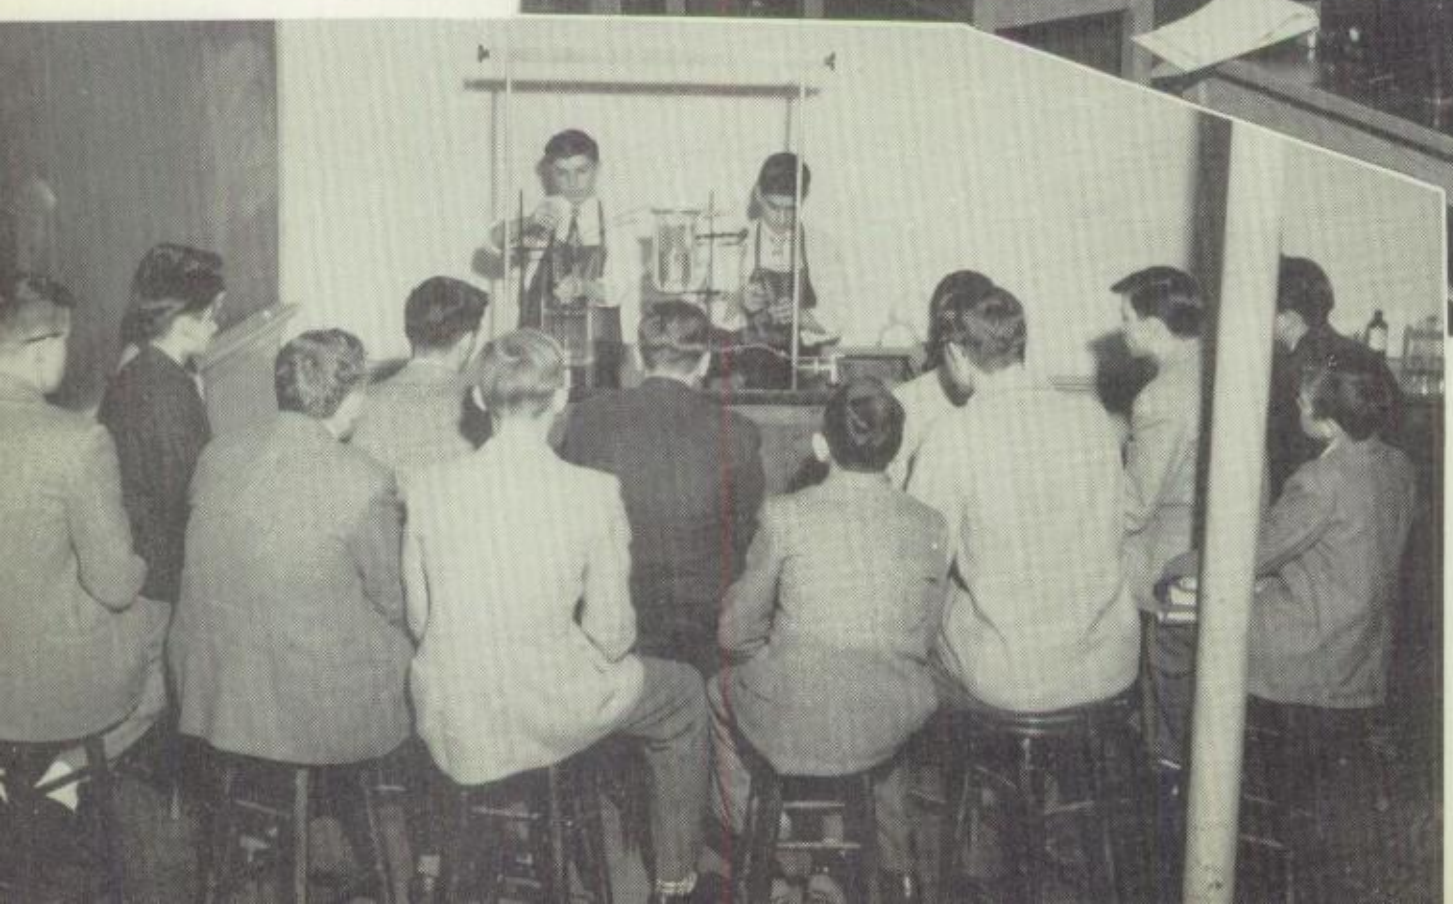
In preparation for electrolysis, Michael Trifillis audulates the water. James Kadilak looks on as Bernard Steckler tests the gas formed at the cathode and Jacob Weaver jots down the results.

Shirley Eline is identifying a stencil while Rita Kurtz prepares to cut one of her own stencils.

Mechanical Drawing class is never dull. Donald Nagle and Kenneth Strausbaugh discuss a problem as Carroll Callahan and Marvin Heiner watch developments.



Sister Stanislaus times the typing class. "Rhythmical Typing" is the motto of the typists from start to finish.



Carl Snyder demonstrates the part a force pump plays in raising water to fill the reservoir while John Mingora shows how the gravity system raises water to all three floors of a dwelling.

Barbara Kotzman and Nancy Mann concentrate on mass production as the papers are placed in the duplicator.

Donald LoPiccolo and librarians, Marian Frantz and Kathleen Chambers, thoroughly enjoy Joseph Fitzgerald's woe - begone expression upon having to pay a fine on an over-due book.

Leonard Ferro, Michael Kristick, Kenneth Strausbaugh, Mary Kurtz and Caroline McGraw make a comparative study of respiration under the direction of Sister Stanislaus.

They'll be "Somebody's Stenog" some day, one and all. Sister Thecla checks as the senior stenography class gets off to transforming shorthand scrolls into typed pages.

STORY OF THE PLAY

Marsy thought she didn't like to go to dances, but Grandma whisks her off to a masked ball with Terry in real Cinderella fashion. At the ball Marsy meets a southern gallant who wins her heart but departs at midnight, accidentally leaving behind his shoe. Marsy treasures the shoe and after a vain search for the masked Roger, comes to realize that the shoe was really Terry's. She realizes too that Terry has qualities which surpass her southern gallant while at the same time he discovers that there is more in life than a second-hand car.

Once again York Catholic High School will add to the religious festive atmosphere of Christmas by presenting its Annual Christmas Pageant. The program presented by the Music Department under the direction of Mr. Russel Nace and Sister Regina Therese will feature an organ Processional by Miss Joan Gaffney, a member of the Junior Class. Joan's rendition will be followed by a "Prelude of Christmas Music" by the York Catholic High School Orchestra and selections by the Glee Club. The latter will sing Neidlinger's "The Birthday of a King" and Palestrina's "Adoramus Te".

Y. C. H. S. 28—Reading 0

The "Dukes" had little trouble romping to an opening game victory before a crowd of 3,000 fans at Small's Athletic Field. The team turned in a flawless performance with "Modo" Munchel tallying three times and "Worm" Godfrey once while Don Lo Piccolo converted after all four touchdowns. The line play was exceptional and Reading failed to register a first down until the last quarter against York reserves.

Y. C. H. S. 32—St. Patrick's 2

St. Pat's of Norristown was no match for the power laden "Dukes" and managed to score when the York kicker stepped out of the end zone for a safety. "Modo" Munchel again scored three T.D.'s and on one occasion went 48 yards on a quarterback sneak. "Andy" Mingora and "Franny" Whare counted once while "Don" Lo Piccolo toed two placements through the uprights.

Y. C. H. S. 13—Harrisburg Catholic 7

The "Big Green" finally met a formidable foe and found themselves on the short end of a 7-0 first quarter score, thanks to an Ortenzio Kostelac pass plus a lateral to Martin. This marked the first time the "Dukes" had been scored upon and tested their ability to come from behind. In the second quarter "Franny" Whare intercepted a lateral and "Don" Lo Piccolo converted to knot the score at 7-7. In the dying minutes of the game "Worm" Godfrey plunged off tackle for the score to climax a drive which covered eighty yards.

Y. C. H. S. 26—Shenandoah Catholic 6

Although the blocking which had been so conspicuous in former games was missing, the "Dukes" had no trouble gaining this decision against a lackadaisical coal region team. "Modo" Munchel scored twice with scoring once while "Don" Lo Piccolo converted twice. Shenandoah Catholic scored on a pass which left the "Big Green" line still unscored upon the ground.

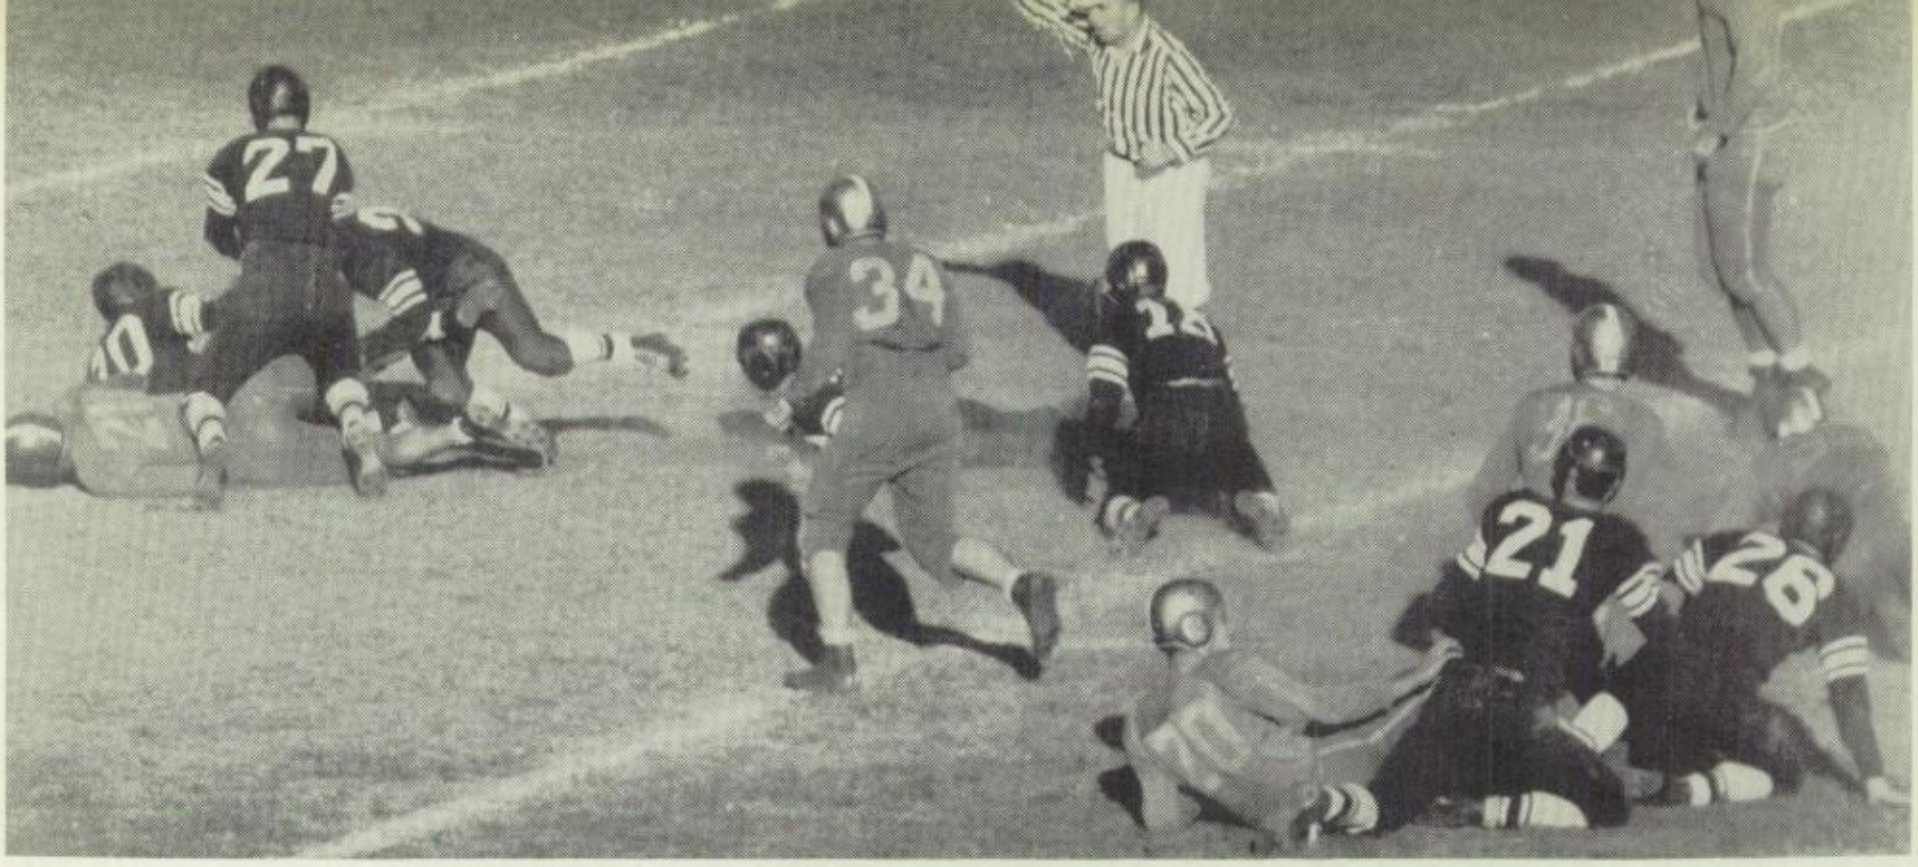
Y. C. H. S. 6—Red Lion 13

October 15 marked it well for this was the grid Waterloo for the Irish football machine. An inspired Red Lion team was not to be denied on this fateful afternoon. Paced by quarterback "Bob" Norris who passed for one touchdown and scored the first ground touchdown on a sneak to snap a four game winning skein. "Worm" Godfrey tallied on a hand-off and a score was nullified while one drive bogged down inside the twenty due to a fumble.



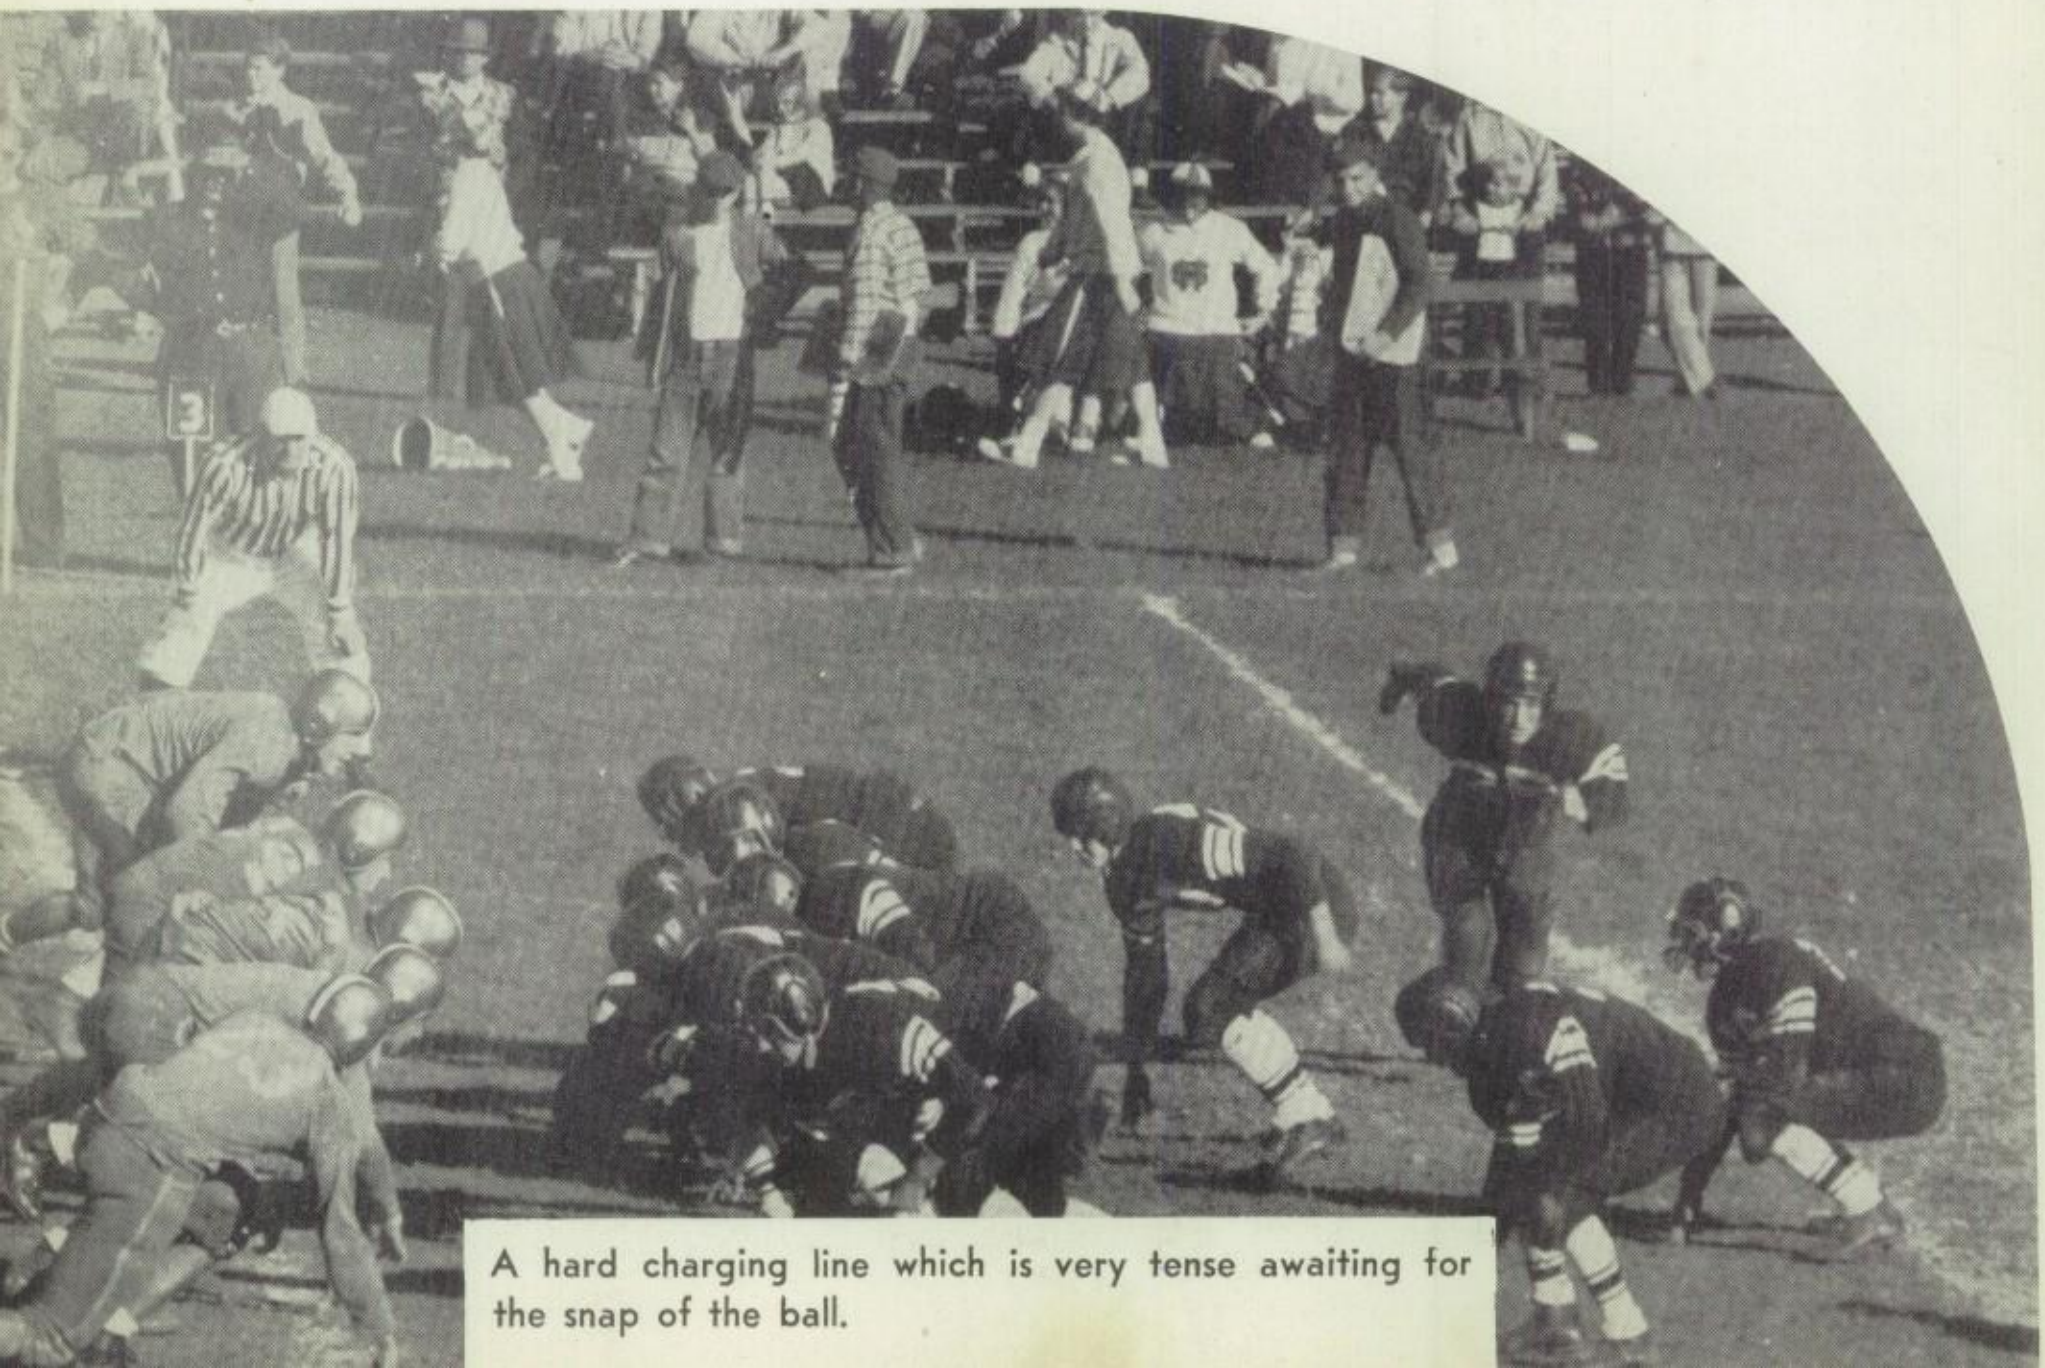
The Shenandoah Catholic players hail Don Lo Piccolo, as he splits the uprights, with that talented toe of his.

Y. C. H. S. 9—St. Matthew's 12

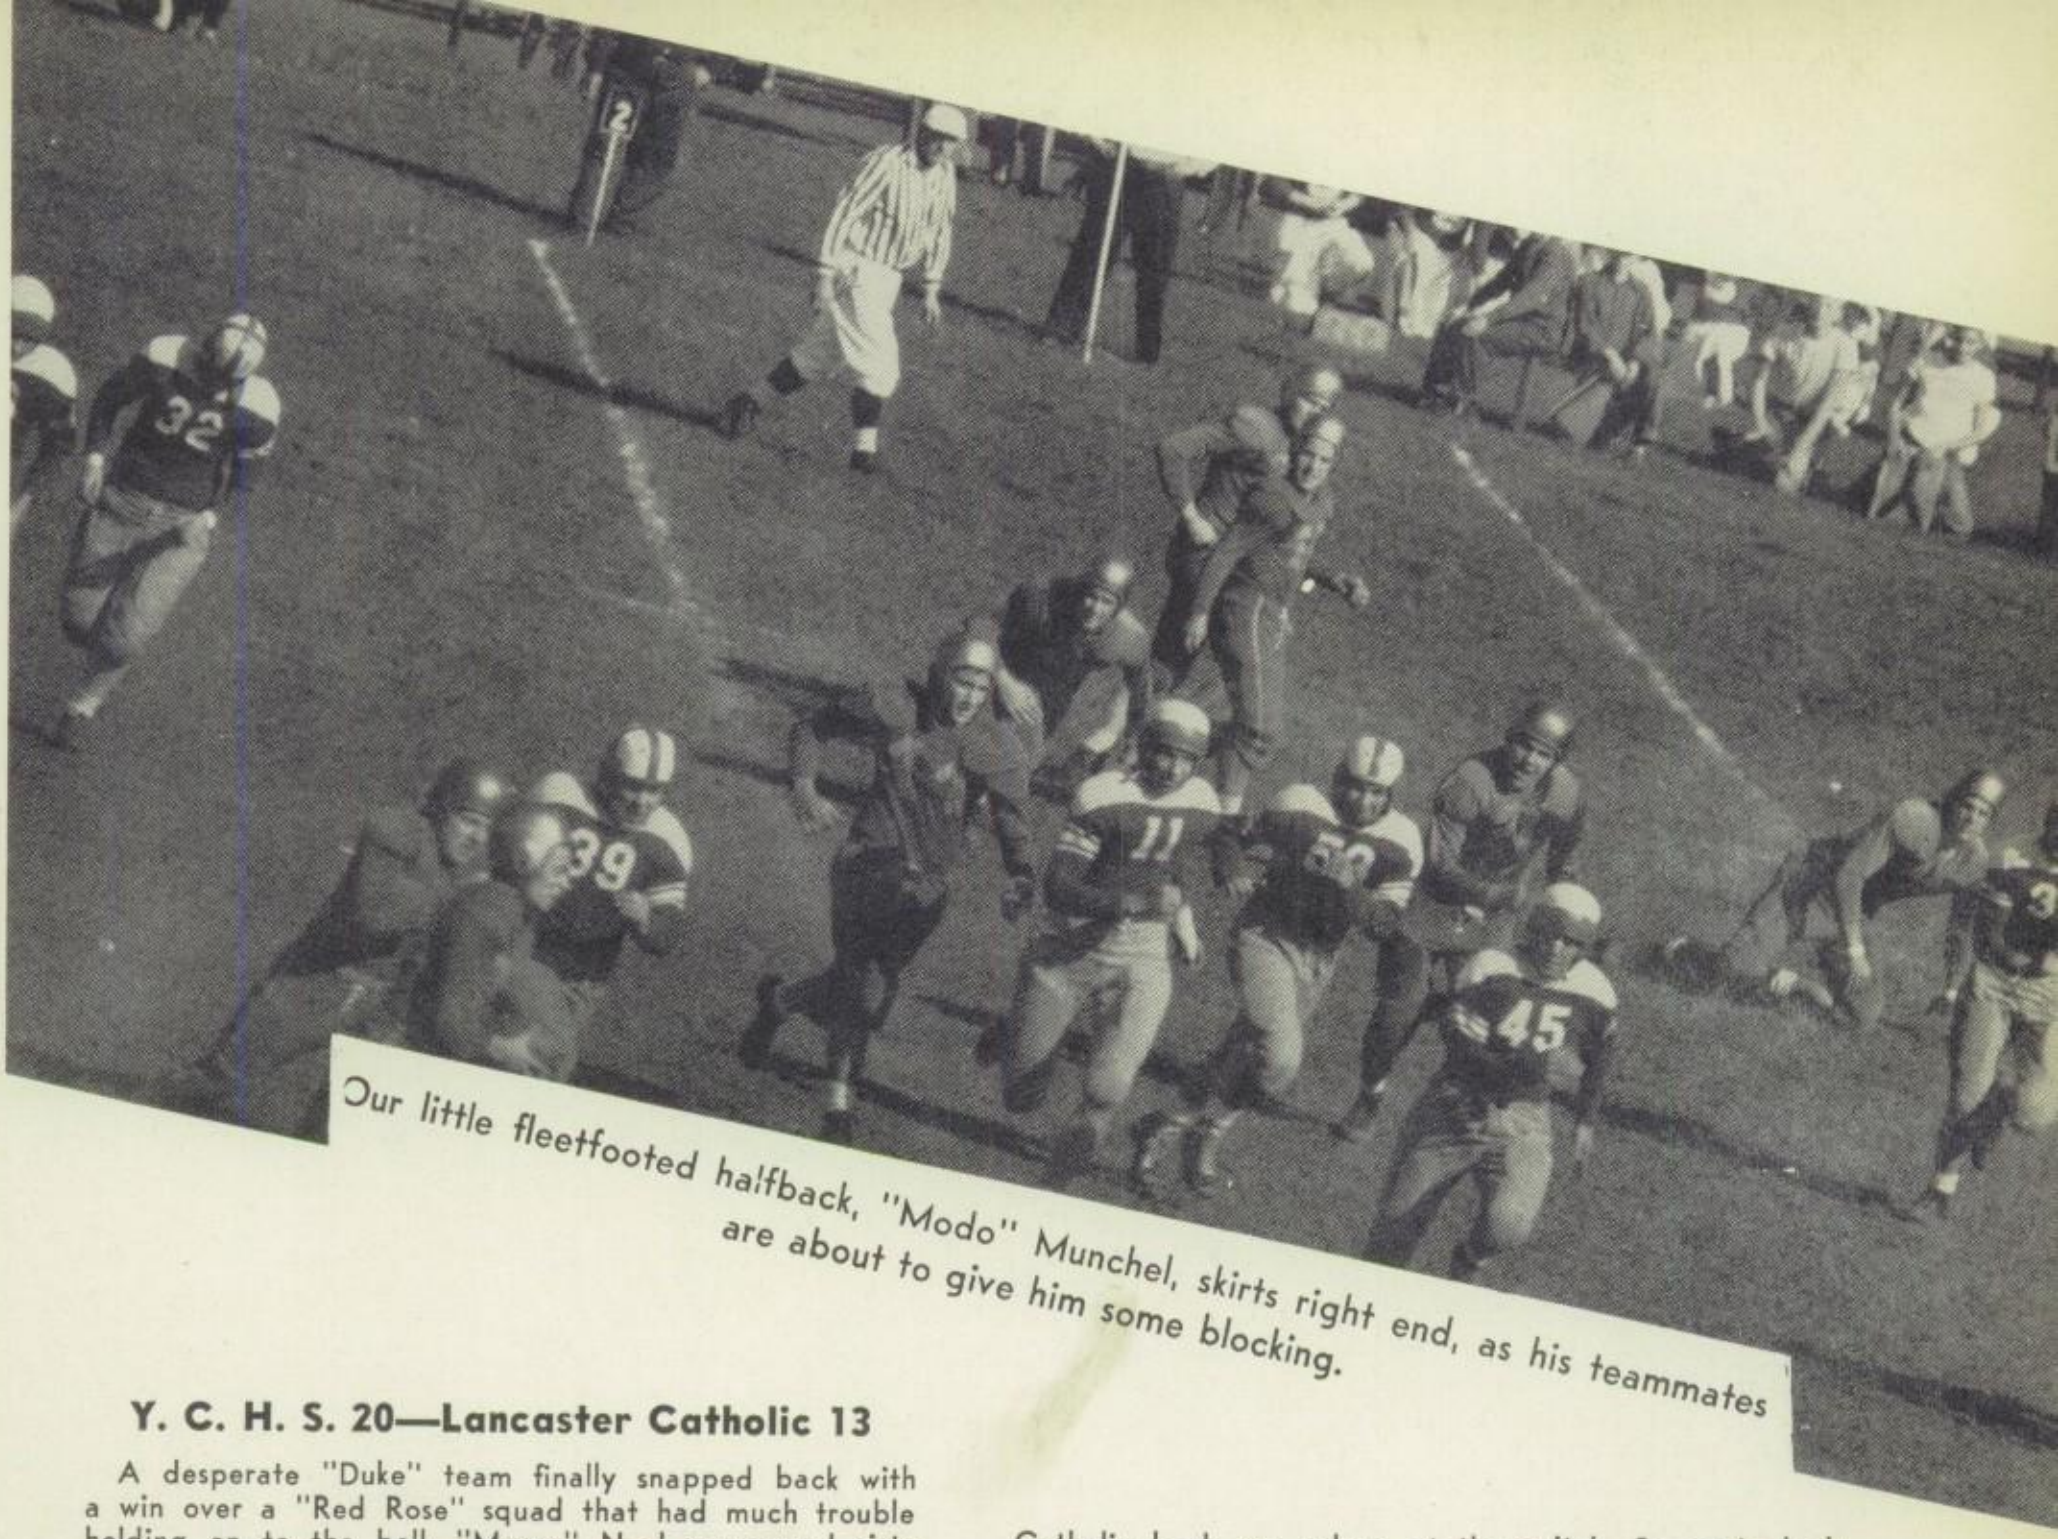
A St. Matt's of Consshohocken was pushed all over the field by the tune of 13-3 first down statistics but all it earned was a moral victory. An Irish back fumbled on the three yard line in the last two minutes. "Worm" Godfrey smashed for the first touchdown before the fans had settled in their seats because of a miscue of "Fred" Kinley's booming kickoff while St. Matt's downed the ball in the end zone as a maneuver to waste time to account for the safety.

Y. C. H. S. 6—West York 7

The Irish eleven tallied within the first eight plays according to the rôle but when a Bulldog back supposedly crossed the final stripes on a disputed play that was a different story. Once more the first down tabulations read 14-3 in favor of Catholic High. "Franny" Werner slashed inside of tackle for the T.D. Then an Irish back spoiled "Moose" Noel's downfield drive by suffering fumbilitis on the one yard line in the last canto.



A hard charging line which is very tense awaiting for the snap of the ball.



Our little fleetfooted halfback, "Modo" Munchel, skirts right end, as his teammates are about to give him some blocking.

Y. C. H. S. 20—Lancaster Catholic 13

A desperate "Duke" team finally snapped back with a win over a "Red Rose" squad that had much trouble holding on to the ball. "Moose" Noel scampered sixty yards through the center for the first score.

Y. C. H. S. 6—Middletown 12

Playing against an opponent who had lost but two of their last thirty-four games the Big Green reached their zenith point of the season. The team must have forgotten to read local papers for they were quoted as four touchdown underdogs. The Catholic eleven scored first, seconds after the beginning of the second period, on a line plunge by "Moose" Noel. Middletown's Blue Raiders struck right back and scored on the fifth play. For the rest of the game it was nip and tuck with the Blue Raiders' two platoons slowly wearing out the iron men of Catholic High. Finally a York player let a punt roll into the end zone instead of downing it but this didn't seem to matter because Middletown stalled for downs until a desperation pass clicked because a Catholic back was asleep at the switch. So again Lady Luck turned a cold shoulder and these two mental lapses told the story.

Y. C. H. S. 7—Delone 34

On the opening kickoff "Modo" Munchel scooted eighty-eight yards into the Promised Land but from then on the wheels of fortune were against us. Later on in the first period "Modo" Munchel scored on an end run but it was nullified. The first downs favored York 11-10. McSherrystown scored as follows: 1st Delone back hit on five, his momentum carried him to the end zone where he fell on his fumble; 2nd the Squire quarterback fumbled the ball, retrieved it and heaved it into the air where a receiver backtracked twenty yards to gather it in and run for the score, but the last three touchdowns scored in the second half were hard earned against a demoralized Irish eleven.

'Moose" Noel, our hard playing fullback, picks up a first down for the Big Green as a host of tacklers bring him down.

The GHOSTS of "50"

The year 1951 will be a year of rebuilding because of the veteran squad Coach Clark used this year. Gone, but not forgotten will be: "Franny" Werner, blocker and defensive halfback; "Moose" Noel, "Mr. Inside," hard plunging fullback; "Modo" Munchel, "Mr. Outside," diminutive co-captain and high scoring quarterback; "Fred" Kinley, co-captain, big and rough end; "Cheetah" Ream, well built alert tackle; "Don" Lo Piccolo, talented toed guard; "Porky" Wills, tough little pivotman; "Fuzzy" Kerchner, most aggressive guard to ever don a "Duke" uniform; "Joe" Fitzgerald, our big tackle, who did a fine job for the "Big Green," and "Joe" Crumbling, glue-fingered end and a defensive terror. Plus a host of reserve strength, Backs: "Andy" Mingora, "Bingo" Kurtz, "Chico" Rizzuto, and "Charlie" Ragusa; Tackles, "Burt" Kurtz and "Dick" Sargen; Guards, "Gump" Reed and "Pete" Weeks and End, Paul Benkert.

Much will be placed on the backs of "Franny" Whare, 5'7" 135-pound dynamo on defense and "Worm" Godfrey who will play a triple threat rôle.

In the first game of the season Reading gave the Dukes the worst shellacking of the season, but after a few games' experience the second contest was a different story with the scoring being tied at the automatic 39 all. Then in the last three minutes they showed why they are the top of the class A outfits in the state. The only team to take our measure twice features a fast starting offense with a double pivot.

Y. C. H. S.	St. Agnes
45	31

St. Agnes took our measure on their bandbox floor but revenge was gained in the return match due to a fourth period explosion. St. Agnes possessed a fiery ball club and had a bouncing team that could control the bank boards.

Y. C. H. S.	Lancaster Catholic
38	39

Our Red Rose rivals blew a close ball game as the two minute rule read in our favor. Over in Lancaster it was a different story as the Lancasterians led throughout the contest and a last period rally fell short. The Crusaders atoned for their only league loss by a scant one point margin.

Y. C. H. S.	Delone Catholic
56	41
43	37

The Dukes were fortunate in meeting a poor edition of the Squire courtsters and had little trouble in either game as the outcome was seldom in doubt.

Y. C. H. S.	Harrisburg Catholic
47	61

Against a well coached hot and cold ball club the Fighting Irish fared all right considering that they played this team with great potentialities on their good nights. The first game was a real thriller which wasn't decided until the last minute but the second game was not much of a contest especially in the last quarter when two regulars fouled out.

Y. C. H. S.	St. Francis Prep

Although our rivalry with the Prep is a comparatively new one, it is very intense because of the proximity of our schools. This series reached a low ebb when they stuck it to us twice by scores of 34-32 and 48-34; however, later on in the season it was discovered that their star center was ineligible. This was a hard blow for the prepsters for it was the first time they had swept both games. By their act of forfeiture the Fighting Irish were named class B representatives of the Harrisburg Diocesan League.

Y. C. H. S.	Lebanon Catholic
49	54

Lebanon Catholic, which has the league's leading scorer for three consecutive years in Steve Gristick, lost to us in the first encounter due to a red hot third period, but they turned the tide in the second encounter on their bandbox floor.

Y. C. H. S.	Mt. Carmel
61	30

The cellar dwelling Mt. Carmel five fell hapless victims to the first division "Dukes" by lopsided scores as every member of the "Big Green" squad entered into the scoring column.

Y. C. H. S.	Alumni
41	51

The Alumni was edged in the first game, but in the return engagement the State Champs of 1948 paced by Bouncing Benny Stewart, showed their understudies how it is done.

Y. C. H. S.	All Stars
41	49

The Diocesan All Star Team used their depth of reserve power to down the "Duke" courtsters. The "Big Green" would move close to the lead only to find it lengthened again.

Y. C. H. S.	St. Patrick's
43	36

St. Patrick's, Scranton, was eliminated by the red hot "Dukes" in the quarter finals of the State Class B P. C. I. A. A. playoffs due to a full thirty-two minutes of aggressive ball playing before a home crowd of about 1,000 fans on the Junior College floor. The spacious floor was the right medicine for the Green and Gold Five; the opponents had no chance whatever to halt the fast breathing offense.

Y. C. H. S.	Bethlehem Catholic
48	57

The hard pressing Bethlehem Catholic quintet matched us point for point for the first three periods, but then poured it on in the finale. Eight seniors made their final bow after having worn the Green and Gold uniforms for four fruitful years. Those seniors include: "Fred" Kinley, "Modo" Munchel, "Tex" Steckler, "Joe" Crumbling, "Joe" Fitzgerald, "Porky" Wills, "Jack" Siebenkase, and "Satch" McCleaf. The only present member of the varsity who will return is "Worm" Godfrey.

Although this year's junior varsity team did not garner many victories, they showed a fighting spirit—a "never-say-die" spirit—against much heavier opponents. This team shows great promise and deserves much credit in that, although composed mainly of freshmen they held their own against many teams comprising juniors and sophomores.

Future varsity teams are guaranteed ample support from the upcoming players on the Intra-Mural League Teams and from those on the Parochial Grade School League. There is no doubt that when the present Jay-Vees have acquired the necessary polish, they will be first division contenders.
